Introduction to ArcGIS Online

V.3 – April 2018

 esri Canada

Tutorial Overview

---

In this tutorial, you will be introduced to the basics of the ArcGIS Online web-based Geographic Information System (GIS) software tool. You will begin by exploring spatial data in the form of map layers that are available online as well as data in Web applications (apps). You will then use the ArcGIS Online Map Viewer to search for content, add features to a map and save and share your completed map with others.

Skills:

- Create web maps
- Save and share maps
- Content page to organize work
- Search and add data
- Create new map features
- Change symbology.

Creating a Map Journal Story Map

V.2 - July 2017

 esri Canada

---

Story maps are a combination of maps, multi-media such as photos and videos, and words that are used to tell a story. In this tutorial, you will use a type of story map called a Map Journal to tell a story. The example used is of a soldier who served during the First World War, however you can create your map journal on any other topic.

Skills:

- Creating new map features.
- Adding data to a Web map.
- Using symbols to describe map features.
- Creating, publishing, and sharing a Map Journal story map.
